

Breathe

Jeremy Zucker

Nervous when I sleep
I never talk about
Thankful when I breathe air
Listen to me close
I play along, I will
Darling, you are no fair

No matter what you say
Or how you talk about it
I'm not playing games, no, oh
This bed won't feel the same, yeah
Without your sound
I lose a crown

But I will hold you still
If these four walls crumble from the thrill...
Be there by my side
Even if the sun falls from the sky...
Just breathe, baby...
Breathe, yeah...

I could let you go
And you talk about me
With your friends
And forget all the things you feel, girl
'Cause I would probably do the same

No matter what you say
Or how you talk about it
I'm not playing games, no, oh
This bed won't feel the same, yeah
Without your sound
I lose a crown

But I will hold you still
If these four walls crumble from the thrill...
Be there by my side
Even if the sun falls from the sky...
Just breathe, baby...
Breathe, yeah...

Hold me me back from someone special
Take my heart and make it less, oh
Let me go just when I need you
I won't let you down
Oh, never let you down
