

Shut Your Mouth

Jeremy Zucker

Lying to me like it's nothing
I know you've been suffering
We've been less than something
Taking everything around you
Be the way you need to
Watch me while I leave you

Tell me what's on your mind
Not what you think is on mine
You can shut your mouth
Tryna get in my ear
Sayin' what I wanna hear

You can shut your mouth
You can shut your mouth
You can shut your mouth

Lock it away, show me no love
It's been a day, I've had enough
Man I've been up then I've been low
Speakin' my soul, even my woes

Never wanted you to love me
I don't needa say I'm sorry
I was round we were conveyin'
Why you sayin' you don't know the sequence
Best believe it, that's the sequence

Steady runnin' round all these demons
With my head in the clouds I don't see 'em
I've been fuckin' round all damn weekend
That's the sequence, that's the sequence
With a new girl every damn season
You've been runnin' round
Looking for a reason
When you come around, I'mma be leavin', yeah

Tell me what's on your mind
Not what you think is on mine
You can shut your mouth
Tryna get in my ear
Sayin' what I wanna hear

You can shut your mouth
You can shut your mouth
You can shut your

Tell me, everything is lovely
Even when it's crumbling
All we had was nothing

Fadin' in and out of phases
Read the situation
I've run out of patience

Tell me what's on your mind

You can shut your mouth
Tryna get in my ear

You can shut your mouth
You can shut your

(So I smile with my teeth
But I ain't want her sheets
Lying in the sheets, cause there's no more defeat
I just want a freak
To love me for me
I just want a freak, who will love me for me
I just want a freak
To love me for me
But you know she's crazy)
