

CHOKEHOLD

Jeris Johnson

She set a tempo, I can't slow down
I'm in a steel cage with no way out
Feelin' the pressure, I can't stop now
Pushin' me further, I can't say no

No, until I'm fading away, seeing stars
And I'm on the edge, begging for more, baby

She put me in a chokehold, chokehold
I hope she never let's go, let's go
I can't tell if it's Hell or it's heavenly
I don't care if it ends with the end of me
I'm in a chokehold, chokehold

Sick from the pleasure, I feel no pain
Nothing but darkness all in my veins
She got her white knuckles on my chain (chain)
Dancin' with death just to feel something

She put me in a chokehold, chokehold
I hope she never let's go, let's go
I can't tell if it's Hell or it's heavenly
I don't care if it ends with the end of me
I'm in a chokehold, chokehold
I hope she never let's go, let's go
I can't tell if it's Hell or it's heavenly
I don't care if it ends with the end of me

And she's taking and taking my energy
And I'm dying in her arms
I'm in a chokehold, chokehold

(Chokehold, chokehold)
(Chokehold, chokehold)
(Chokehold, chokehold)
(Chokehold, chokehold)
(Chokehold, chokehold)
(Chokehold, chokehold)
