

CRISIS!

Jeris Johnson

(Five, four, three) yeah (one)

Fucking on your miss, it's a crisis
I'ma murder this 'cause I'm violent
Shaking up the box, I'm a pioneer
This the new shit you ain't ever hear
Consumed by the flames, we're breaking out the chains
You know you ain't shit, you know I bring the pain
I'm 'boutta go to war and make the world headbang
F-f-fucking on your miss, it's a crisis

Yeah, let's call it what it is, an emergency
Leader of this shit, do it fearlessly
I'm the future, 'cause I'm a rockstar playing my computer
When I woke up, I got some nerve
When I show up, I make it hurt
Word around town, that's what you heard
Girl you annoying, uh, swerve
Sometimes I got a demon that I gotta let out
Now I'm calling on an angel that'll slow me down

Fucking on your miss, it's a crisis
I'ma murder this 'cause I'm violent
Shaking up the box, I'm a pioneer
This the new shit you ain't ever hear
Consumed by the flames, we're breaking out the chains
You know you ain't shit, you know I bring the pain
I'm 'boutta go to war and make the world headbang

Put these heads on the curb and I stomp 'em out
Put these heads on the curb and I stomp 'em out
Put these heads on the curb and I stomp 'em out
Put these heads on the curb and I stomp—
Put these heads on the curb and I stomp 'em out
Put these heads on the curb and I stomp 'em out
Put these heads on the curb and I stomp 'em out
Put these heads on the curb and I stomp 'em out

Fucking on your miss, it's a crisis
I'ma murder this 'cause I'm violent
Shaking up the box, I'm a pioneer
This the new shit you ain't ever hear
Consumed by the flames, we're breaking out the chains
You know you ain't shit, you know I bring the pain
I'm 'boutta go to war and make the world headbang
