

Detonate

Jeris Johnson

I been feeling bad to the bone
I been headed straight for the throne
If I walk into the room it's a spotlight
If I'm ever knocked down bet I still fight

I can feel the energy (I can feel it)
I can feel our strength build inside of me
We're everything you'll never be
Ain't nobody in the world with our legacy
Time to move, don't hesitate
Tick tick boom, I'm never late
Don't stop now, better run because
I'm ready to detonate

I'm ready to detonate

I'm ready to detonate

I can't stop, I'm about to go off like 'boom'
Yeah, I'm a detonator

So if you think you're bad like that
Come on out and face our wrath
Been moving up the board so fast
When the pressure on, I'm so cash

I never hesitate on the move, we're too fast
And I'm unapologetically born to be the best
I'm about to blow you out
I'm ready to detonate

I'm ready to detonate

I'm ready to detonate

I'm coming with that 'bang', I'm coming for the top
I step into the room, make everybody drop
This is my time, this is my shot
I'm a firestarter, in case you forgot
I'm coming with that 'boom', feeling like dynamite
Vroom vroom all day, every night
I'm ready, I'm ready, I'm ready
I'm ready to detonate

I'm ready to detonate

'Cause I'm ready to detonate

Are you ready to detonate?
I'm ready!
I'm ready!
