

Kryptonite (Reloaded)

Jeris Johnson

She says I'm crazy but you know she calls me Superman
Said I'm her kryptonite, well baby she's the backup plan
I gave her everything but my inhuman heart, yeah

I wish I cared but I'm living it up
I got the 1,2,3 shots filling my cup, yeah
Try and fix me, then forgive me
'Cause I'm about to destroy this quickly
She don't wanna ask, she afraid to know
That I painted black what she painted gold
Baby if you mad, then it's time to go

She think she the one to change me
But little does she know that I'm beyond frustrating
'Cause in order to be saved, I'd have to want saving
And the love you felt so lying, just know I ain't been trying
Alright, alright, alright

She says I'm crazy but you know she calls me Superman
Said I'm her kryptonite, well baby she's the backup plan
I gave her everything but my inhuman heart
Yeah, yeah, yeah

Bad news, bitch I'm the dynamite, she lit the fuse
I said I'm rock, I think they all confused
She need attention, she sending me nudes, yeah
Meet me on the way, I can bring the Chevy, you can bring the la y
Grab a couple friends, maybe we can make a tape
I could give a fuck about it anyway

She think she the one to change me
But little does she know that I'm beyond frustrating
'Cause in order to be saved, I'd have to want saving
And the love you felt so lying, just know I ain't been trying
Alright, alright, alright

She says I'm crazy but you know she calls me Superman
Said I'm her kryptonite, well baby she's the backup plan
I gave her everything but my inhuman heart
Yeah, yeah, yeah

She says I'm crazy but you know she calls me Superman
Said I'm her kryptonite, well baby she's the backup plan
I gave her everything but my inhuman heart
Yeah, yeah, yeah
