my sword

Jeris Johnson

(You're now listening to the future)

Unsheathe my sword
Grab my bats
Fuck this shit
I wanna do my dance
I'm so clean
You know me
Slayed the dragon
Now I fuck the queen

Yeah, look at me in the face
Drop 'em 'til they throw the key
I've been tasting the blood
Of all my enemies
Guess I'll spill on the world
Now I think they like me, yeah
Hey, hey

Now they can't ignore me
Hundred thousand new fans
No one can control me
Yeah, my song doesn't have a name (hey!)
See my future fame, yeah
I feel like I'm dragonborn in 2023, yeah

I feel like King Arthur
Nobody is stronger
Now they're on a string and then I shoot 'em
Like an archer
I feel like a martyr
She sunk me through my armor
If you stand between my castle
Begging for your life
I never barter

You can trade your life
For your head on a spike
'Cause I know you'll look good on my wall
Now I'll never, ever, fall

I'mma dye your hair blonde
With the blow of your dick
'Cause my sword is the biggest of all
Now I'll never, ever, fall

Now lend me your ears
Let me tell you the story of rock
Well I have slayed the beast
Now I'm here to bring him back

And ready your axes
I'm planting my flag on the charts
Slashing through history
Fulfilling our destiny

Open this pit

I see bun, I'm selling my shit
Checking my fit
Went from a king to a fool
When I want
I measure my bitch
Breaking up and banging, shit
Low curb back when I banged your bitch
Got my sword and my dick, gang gang
Now everybody call me Jon Snow
I'm that heir, got a throne
I'm a mad Targaryen
A fucking barbarian
I'm ice cold
So at night, watch your hoe
And if you're not careful

Unsheathe my sword
Grab my bats
I wanna do my dance
I'm so clean
You know me
Slayed the dragon
Now I fuck the queen, yeah
Look at me in the face
Of all my enemies
Now I think they like me
