

Ode To Metal

Jeris Johnson

Ok I rock, I roll, I sold my fucking soul
Been livin' south of heaven since eleven years old
I'm up, you know, I'm coming for the throne
If you think you can end me, know my vengeance is sevenfold

I'm a problem that can't be stopped
And I'mma bang my head til this shit falls off
I know the ground will shake when the breakdown drops it goes

With all I am
With all I was
Born from darkness my forsaken love

I shed my skin
I'm waking up
Begin again
Right where it started

Oh won't you take me back
To a day I can't remember
When my eyes went black
Screaming unholy confessions
And I'm not the only one that's become so numb

Yeah

I'll live these words until I die
(Until I die, until I die)

I'll spill blood my until I'm dry
(Until I'm dry, until I'm dry)

Ok I rock, I roll, I sold my fucking soul
Been livin' south of heaven since eleven years old
I'm up, you know, I'm coming for the throne
If you think you can end me, know my vengeance is sevenfold, bitch

Oh won't you take me back
To a day I can't remember
Before I forget who I was

Oh won't you take me back
To a day I can't remember
When my eyes went black
Screaming unholy confessions
And I'm not the only one that's become so numb
