sticks + stones

Jeris Johnson

Got me glued to the bed
All the shit that you said
Is ringing loud in my head
I've been stuck in chains
I don't know that I'm changed
So I try to forget
I've been drowning you out
Liquor and clouds but they haven't helped yet
I've been figuring out
How to live in this town
Without seeing you here

And I crash in the waves as I come down
Because all that I want is a way out

I throw sticks and stones (did it hurt, did it hurt?)
On my broken bones (did it hurt, did it hurt?)
But you and me
When nobody sees
Digging up holes inside me
Why am I all alone?
Nothing hurts, nothing hurts like you

I don't wanna eat
And I can't even sleep
Cause you keep kicking me out
Yeah I toss and I turn
While I crash and I burn
Should I be blaming myself?
You're the secret I keep
But I think it's time you be the secret I tell
How to figure it out
How to live in this town
Cause I ain't doing too well

And I crash in the waves as I come down
Because all that I want is a way out

I throw sticks and stones (did it hurt, did it hurt?)
On my broken bones (did it hurt, did it hurt?)
But you and me
When nobody sees
Digging up holes inside me
Why am I all alone?
Nothing hurts, nothing hurts like you
Nothing hurts, nothing hurts like you
Nothing hurts, nothing hurts like you
Nothing hurts, nothing hurts like you (like you)

I throw sticks and stones
On my broken bones (oh)
But you and me
When nobody sees
Digging up a hole inside of me (oh)
Nothing hurts like you

I throw sticks and stones (did it hurt, did it hurt?)

On my broken bones (did it hurt, did it hurt?)
But you and me
When nobody sees
Digging up holes inside me
Why am I all alone?
Nothing hurts, nothing hurts like you
