

It Won't Be Me

Jerrold Niemann

Ah baby your crazy if you think I'm gonna make the call
I won't go there
I don't care if you hate me say there's nothing left at all
If someone gonna walk away from all of our debris
It won't be me
It won't be me

Don't wanna be the one to miss a kiss
When you lean in and close your eyes
Won't be the guy who sleeps at night
Without the love of this life
Cause I can't, can't stand the thought of another man
Calling you his, if someone's calling it quits
It won't be me

So baby just say it that we've come undone
We've seen our better days and now we're a setting sun
If someone gonna lock the door and leave the key
It won't be me
It won't be me

Don't wanna be the one to miss a kiss
When you lean in and close your eyes
Won't be the guy who sleeps at night
Without the love of this life
Cause I can't, can't stand the thought of another man
Calling you his, if someone's calling it quits
It won't be me

How the hell can for forever, seven simple letters
Be so hard to keep together
How the hell can forever, seven simple letters

Don't wanna be the one to miss a kiss
When you lean in and close your eyes
Won't be the guy who sleeps at night
Without the love of this life
Cause I can't, can't stand the thought of another man
Calling you his, if someone's calling it quits
It won't be me
It won't be me
