

The Regulars

Jerrold Niemann

We're the regulars
Everybody knows our names
We run the jukebox
Play all the songs they hate
'Cause they're all slow and heart-broke
It's the only life we know
Yeah, we're the regulars

We come here for one, stay all night long
They pour our drinks a little too strong
(Kick it with our work boots on)
Come one, come on and sing along
If you're cutting loose, you're letting go
Pull up a stool, yeah, welcome home
Throw it down for the [?]
Yeah, we're the regulars

We're neon renegades
But we got unspoken rules
Tip our bartender good
You better wait your turn for pool
We're a rowdy crowd, too loud
Oh but they won't kick us out

We come here for one, stay all night long
They pour our drinks a little too strong
(Kick it with our work boots on)
Come one, come on and sing along
If you're cutting loose, you're letting go
Pull up a stool, yeah, welcome home
Throw it down for the [?]
Yeah, we're the regulars

Yeah, yeah we're the regulars
Yeah, yeah we came here first
Yeah, yeah ain't you heard

We come here for one, stay all night long
They pour our drinks a little too strong
(Kick it with our work boots on)
Come one, come on and sing along
If you're cutting loose, you're letting go
Pull up a stool, yeah, welcome home
Throw it down for the [?]
Yeah, we're the regulars

Yeah, yeah we're the regulars
Yeah, yeah we came here first
Yeah, yeah we're the regulars
Yeah, yeah
