

Between

Jerry Cantrell

Goin' to California, try and find my head
Gonna swim in the ocean until I'm dead
Let the infection spread

On my way to Texas, drive upon my ranch
Gonna take you fishin' up Big Branch
Well, now you're my catch

Somewhere in between the wrong and right
We fight
It's fair to say that in your eyes I'm wrong,
And in my mind that's alright

Somewhere in between the wrong and right
We fight
It's fair to say that in your eyes I'm wrong,
And in my mind that's alright

Off in New York City, good to see some friends
Scratched my nose upon a barette on her head
Laid up in a rental bed

Then back home to Seattle, fed the monkey man
I proceed to throw up all over my hand
Well, it ain't so bad

Somewhere in between the wrong and right
We fight
It's fair to say that in your eyes I'm wrong,
And in my mind...

Somewhere in between the wrong and right
We fight
It's fair to say that in your eyes I'm wrong,
And in my mind that's alright
That's alright
That's alright
That's alright
