Dismembered

Jerry Cantrell

Watch my stitches come unsewn
Another piece gone by the wayside
Remember when I was oh, so bright?
Dismembered, is my head on right?

I've been torn and I've been thrown
Held together by what will not die
Remember, I still can bring a smile
Dismembered, hold me a little while

Glass eyes and a lizard tail
Awarded in the time you're given
Don't look back
It's alright, we all win and fail
Born and then you die
Between, we have a life
So live it out

Automatic, non-stop static, so
Automatic, non-stop static, so
Automatic, non-stop static, so

Watch my stitches come unsewn
Another piece gone by the wayside
Remember when you were oh, so bright?
Dismembered, is my head on right?

Glass eyes and a lizard tail
Awarded in the time you're given
Don't look back
It's alright, we all win and fail
Born and then you die
Between, we have a life
Just live it out

Don't let it pass you by
Let it out, all of the shit inside
Live it out, don't let it pass you by
Let it out, all of the shit inside

Make it matter, don't look back
Just let it out
