

Off The Rails

Jerry Cantrell

Pretend you're not alone
Head like a stone
Pretend you're not alone
Head like a stone

Internal thunder, confusion groves
Eat the fruit where passion flows
In the shade
Chronic soldier march in time
Fill in the breach, the honor is mine
Whatcha say?

Over and over
Batten down
Ain't going slower
Batten down
Over and over
Batten down
Ain't going slower

Nothing more than heads or tails
Might as well have a laugh
Always two wheels off the rails

Heat distortion, figures gleam
Tending a fire, intentions mean
Cause they're paid
Plowing over the chosen one
Needle of poison, crack of a gun
Put away

Over and over
Batten down
Ain't going slower
Batten down
Over and over
Batten down
Ain't going slower

Nothing more than heads or tails
Might as well have a laugh
Cut the cord and set your sail
Catch a wind while it lasts
Nothing more than heads or tails
Might as well have a laugh
Always two wheels off the rails

You're not alone
Head like a stone
You're not alone
Head like a stone

Nothing more than heads or tails
Might as well have a laugh
Cut the cord and set your sail
Nothing more than heads or tails

Might as well have a laugh
Always two wheels off the rails

Pretend you're not alone
