

Throw Me A Line

Jerry Cantrell

Long ago I surrendered
Guess you know I did the crime
Overdue, return to sender
And even though in this good life

Ain't no reason, won't you come on by
Ain't no reason, I wanna get high

Throw me a line
Some other time

And how will I be remembered?
For a moment in the sun
All the promise undelivered
And the dead end roads I've run

Ain't no reason, won't you come on by
Ain't no reason, I wanna get high

Throw me a line
Some other time
Throw me a line

Been so long, had me a real taste
Twist my arm, show me your real face
Been so long, had me a real taste
Twist my arm, show me your real face

What you choose may well differ
A million miles begin with one

Ain't no reason, won't you come on by
Ain't no reason, I wanna get high

Throw me a line
Some other time
Throw me a line
Some other time
