

Things

Jerry Lee Lewis

Every night I sit here by my window
Staring at the lonely avenue
Watching lovers holding hands and laughing
And I'm thinking about the things we used to do

I'm thinking about things like a walk in the park
Things like a kiss in the dark
Things like a sailboat ride
What about the night we cried
Things like a lover's vow
Things that we don't do now
Thinking about the things we used to do

Well, memories are all I have to cling to Old heartaches are the friends I'm talkin' to
When I'm thinking of just how much did I love you
Girl, I'm thinking about those things we used to do

I'm thinking about things like a walk in the park
Things like a kiss in the dark
Things like a sailboat ride
Baby, what about the night we cried
Things like a lover's vow
Things that we don't do now
Thinking about the things we used to do

Well, I can hear the jukebox softly playing
And the face I see each day belongs to you
But there's not a single one around to love
I keep thinking about the things we used to do

I'm thinking about things like a walk in the park
Things like a kiss in the dark
Things like a sailboat ride
Baby, what about the night we cried
Things like a lover's vow
Things that we don't do now
I'm thinking about things we used to do
I'm thinking about things we used to do
You got me thinking about things we used to do
