

I Shoulda Stayed Home

Jerry Reed

A short while ago I thought that I could never be broke
Now I got you on my mind a pack on my back and one smoke
My wife just quit me and your husband's gonna sue me
But I forget it honey when you ease up to me
Home I shoulda stayed home yeah

I shoulda stayed in my room that day you busted into my life
I said goodbye to my home to my kids to myself to my wife
But I don't care what you might ruin keep on doin' what you bee n doin'
Home I shoulda stayed home feels so fine yeah
Blows my mind every time uhh

Now Samson Napoleon Adam and Caesar too
Well they all got wasted by a fancy woman like you
Now woman I would leave you if I could
But your sweet lovin's so doggone good
Home I shoulda stayed home
Hey I shoulda stayed home shoulda stayed home yeah
Well good golly Miss Molly you're so doggone bad
But you're the finest lovin' that I ever had yeah
