

If I Ever - Love Again

Jerry Reed

If I ever dream again
Well it's because I'll be dreamin' of you
If I ever smile again
Well it's because I'll be thinkin' of you
If I ever touch the hand of another woman
It's because I just need a hand to hold

Some people are made to love again and they do
Oh they're not half as lucky as me
Guess I'll spend my whole life goin' round lovin' you
If I ever reach again
It's because I'm still achin' with want for you
And if I ever try again
It's because I'm pretending that she's you
If I'm sad I don't mind cause I had it all one time
We'll be together if I ever ever love again
