

Love-Hate

Jeru the Damaja

All lives matter
Means black lives matter
The poor get poorer the fat get fatter
Humanity is doomed consuming lies they feed us
White hypocrites and black misleaders
And yea it's racism a lot of them mistreat us
But how you plan on winning if you doin what he does
All this technology and you worried bout what she does
If revolution and mental
They pullin out them heaters
See, I made the decision to be my brothers keepers
I'm gonna do what god do
Not stressin what the street does
Listen
To be exact at every turn, it's a trap
We even devalued our words
Look what happened to rap
In fact
The lack of substance
Just a tool to distract
Not tryna bring the 90's back
And you can put that on your face tat
Romanticizing the past is abstract
We live in the here and now
We need to embrace that

Love
Hate
Love
Hate
Love, hate, love, hate, love, hate, love, hate

Love
Hate
Love
Hate
Love, hate, love, hate, love, hate, love, hate

Black lives matter
Cause all lives matter
The rich get richer
The sad get sadder
Humanity is lost feasting on lies they feed us
Pedophile priest
Adulterous preachers
And yea its racism
And some of them did beat us
Believe your destiny
Is not determined by your features
Beware the internet
And all these self-proclaimed teachers
If revolution ain't mental
See, I made the decision
To be my brothers' keepers
Cause I'm seeking my freedom
Not doin what the beast does

Listen
Long as you live
You'll be constantly learning
The world keeps spinnin
So keep the fire burnin
Life ain't what it used to be
Man I'll say that for certain
But I ain't tryna bring the 90's
Put that on your twerkin
People stay hurtin
Ignorance workin
Be mindful of the energy
Transferred person to person
Show love

Hate
Love
Hate

Love
Hate
Love
Hate

Love...
