

Same Mistake

Jes

you had me hanging on for years i've so much to say twisting circles on the truth its as clear as day i never asked for much but i only wanted you i gave everything i have inside but nothing would do you ain't ever gonna change and it will always be this way and i won't make the same mistake
again
this is what i need to face old habits are hard to break i wont make the same mistake again and now i finally reache d the point of no return it took a lot of heart ache and pain for me to learn that life is just too short to fake and we're allwrong and i don't need to be afraid of moving on
and i wont make the same mistake
again
