

Two Souls

Jes

I don't know where you've come from
But I look at you and feel you're someone
Searching for more
Than just a ride
Could it be you see the same
In my eyes

Oh I feel we've met some place before
And I know we'll meet again...

Life is coming like a train
All seasons need to change
Time burns on like a flame
And you'll know
You will not stare it down
So stand where I stand now
Join Two Souls in the crowd
Two Souls

Oh I feel we've met some place before
And I know we'll meet again...

Life is coming like a train
All seasons need to change
Time burns on like a flame
And you'll know
You will not stare it down
So stand where I stand now
Join Two Souls in the crowd
