

Love And Love Again

Jesca Hoop

Comes the sun heaven's rays
and the stormers are gone and the white flag is raised golden days
and the city is in love again and we dream
in a daze
and we drink and we dance and we throw cares away lovers gaze
and the city is in love my heart was so dark dear with you not here

and the cold wind
is all that would meet me at my door i waved goodbye and wished you well life's a carousel when it brings you round it never never tells when you'll find yourself in love again
the merry-go-round never ends i waved goodbye...

bitter rose sour plum and the birds sing to soothe where the roses are stung love's begun
there's a spell on the air and the sailors all drift and get lost in her hair hearts are bare and the soldiers come home again my eyes they grew dark dear

is all that would dance me round my floor

i waved goodbye...
