

Seed Of Wonder

Jesca Hoop

Once my love stood still like a stagnant
Well, for so long you could hear
The song of spiders, strumming fiber
Calling her to the web

My river sits in ebb, the little ones
Lean over, laughing echoes
Bounce down the dark until it hits the floor
Singin', 'Come on baby, come on child call your flo
Like a seed of wonder, faith of mustard, oh yeah, oh yeah

All is dark, all of the light is vanished
It is gone like something large
Hovering high has covered up the sun
And something quiets the silken ringing
Something breaks the strum
A wish has finally come, oh no, oh no

All I want is to be writing to be writing
All I want is to be writing and it goes something like
Once that wish did land like a star in my hand
It burned and it burned and it burrowed in
Soar through the source searching
Hammer and ping and tapped my virgin spring

And prime the vein with milk of mother
And wet my river bed
Pearls strung up on silk thread, the starry one

Beams of light he's working under
Digging through the dark gathering particles
Finding everything you ever wished for in your soul
Like a seed of wonder faith of mustard, oh yeah, oh yeah

Oh no, oh no, oh no, no, no
Oh no, oh no, oh no, no, no

Finally that tapped spring
Come running like a river my song it came, oh yeah, oh no

Right away I went writing, I went writing
Right away I was humming, I was humming
Right away I was singing, I was singing
Right away I was loving and it goes something like
Light, I haven't always been under such a blue
Only you have seen such storming in my life

All I want is to be writing, to be writing
All I want is to be writing and it goes something like
Once my love stood still like a stagnant
Well, for so long you could hear
The song of spiders, strumming fibbers
Calling her to the web

My river sits in ebb, the little ones
Lean over, laughing echoes
Bounce down the dark until it hits the floor

Singin', 'Come on baby, come on child call your flo
Like a seed of wonder, faith of mustard, oh yeah, oh yeah'

All is dark, all of the light is vanished
It is gone like something large
Hovering high has covered up the sun
And something quiets the silken ringing
Something breaks the strum
A wish has finally come, oh no, oh no, oh

All I want is to be writing to be writing
All I want is to be writing and it goes something like
Once that wish did land like a star in my hand
It burned and it burned and it burrowed in
Soar through the source searching
Hammer and ping and tapped my virgin spring

And prime the vein with milk of mother
And wet my river bed
Pearls strung up on silk thread, the starry one

Beams of light, he's working under
Digging through the dark gathering particles
Finding everything you ever wished for in your soul
Like a seed of wonder faith of mustard, oh yeah, oh yeah

Oh no, oh no, oh no, no, no
Oh no, oh no, oh no, no, no

Finally that tapped spring
Come running like a river my song it came, oh yeah, oh no

Right away I went writing, I went writing
Right away I was humming, I was humming
Right away I was singing, I was singing
Right away I was loving and it goes something like light
I haven't always been under such a blue
Only you have seen such storming in my life

Oh, oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, oh, oh