

Worst Enemy

Jess Benko

I'm tryna convince myself
To act like someone else
Is it better for my health
If I keep it to myself

Sorry
If it seems like I'm lonely
Maybe you just don't know me
So I constantly remind myself

No one wants to cry with the radio on
Shuffling my music and it's all sad songs
Don't know why this phase is taking so damn long
To get out of my head
Everybody's winning while I'm breaking down
Hate being so sad with all these are people around
Cause I'm scared of what they'll think of me
Scared I'll be the death of me
Am I my own worst enemy?
Am I my own worst enemy?

Hide it so you can't tell
I'm not a child don't need your help
I'll work it out on my own
Finding shelter from my storm

Sorry
If it seems like I'm lonely
Maybe you just don't know me
So I constantly remind myself

No one wants to cry with the radio on
Shuffling my music and it's all sad songs
Don't know why this phase is taking so damn long
To get out of my head

Everybody's winning while I'm breaking down
Hate being so sad with all these are people around
Cause I'm scared of what they'll think of me
Scared I'll be the death of me
Am I my own worst enemy?

Am I my own worst enemy?
