

Leave Each Other Alone

Jess Moskaluke

Without you
Baby, don't know if I don't have to Every thought in my head's about you
All around you tonight
The tension
We left between us is all I'm feelin'
Layin' here, just starin' at the ceilin'
I'm missin' those eyes

Then light a fire we tried to put out
But, baby, neither of us knows how

We can leave the room a wreck, our clothes all over the floor
Leave an empty red bottle from the night before
Have the kind of night that leaves us both wantin' more
And more and more
You can leave a message at 2 AM to see if I'm home
I'll leave the consequences out for now 'cause we know
That we can't leave, no, we can't leave each other alone, alone
No, we can't leave each other alone

We keep sayin'
We're finally gonna find out what space is
But when we get too far away, we can't take it
It might not be right how we're blurrin' the line
But we don't care tonight

We can leave the room a wreck, our clothes all over the floor
Leave an empty red bottle from the night before
Have the kind of night that leaves us both wantin' more
And more and more
You can leave a message at 2 AM to see if I'm home
I'll leave the consequences out for now 'cause we know
That we can't leave, no, we can't leave each other alone, alone
No, we can't leave each other alone

Can't leave each other alone
Can't leave each other alone
Oh-oh

We can leave the room a wreck, our clothes all over the floor
Leave an empty red bottle from the night before
Have the kind of night that leaves us both wantin' more
And more, oh, we both want more
Leave a message at 2 AM to see if I'm home
I'll leave the consequences out for now 'cause we know
That we can't leave, no, we can't leave each other alone, alone
No, we can't leave each other alone

We need each other
Can't leave each other
Can't leave each other (Oh)
Can't leave each other alone, oh, oh
Can't leave each other alone (Oh)
Alone, alone, alone, alone, alone
We can't leave each other alone (Oh woah)
Alone, alone, alone, alone

Can't leave each other alone, alone
No, we can't leave each other alone
