

Awakening Baby

Jess Williamson

I can feel your heart or is it mine? Or is it ours?
Outside, something blooms alongside us
This love predates my name and my face and my age
Something is awakening
Awakening

Baby, baby
Baby, baby

There have been signs in the cards and in the sky
And in the backroads of my mind, I've taken you
Now you're talking to the fire like a lover again
Your place I've never been
Something is awakening

Baby, baby
Baby, baby

Your hair in my bed is regarded as a relic
My past and my future envy me
Touch your shoulder, feel your breath in my ear
Bring you that much closer
Something is awakening

Baby, baby
Baby, baby
Awakening babe
Awakening babe
Awakening babe
Awakening

Awakening babe
Awakening babe
Awakening babe
Awakening
Baby
