From me
But I been feeling like a prodigy
I'm only tryna stand for what I say and do it solidly
Wannabes hating, throwing me conformity
I can see the road long in front of me and us

But I will never give a fuck
Stay with middle finger up
Fuck misogyny and policies that try to keep us down
We tryna LIFT up, we gotta lift up
So if you wana try me twice, catch two L's

And you can live behind your lies but, baby truth tells
You need to shed and re learn ya self -like some new cells
