Hear the people shouting

And I walk with that drip

Cuz I know I'm the shit

And all my people tight like a contraction
And we move like Janet, like Jackson

Is that power?

Is that
It's that hour, that flow, is that ours
Hoe, you know I build it from the floor, see that's towers
Anyone who claim they made Tembo
We let em know
That I been waiting for a minute

Make another one hoe

I been writing for a minute
I'm a classic, you a gimmick
If you thought that I was finished
So that you can try and mimic
You should listen to the lyrics
You should know your shit's got limits
And I think your shit is whack
I'm the first one to admit it

Ego builds cracks like fractions
Bridges be burned from the action
Like
(No)
I ain't feeling it
(Nah)
Bitch I'm killing it
(Woah)
You ain't listen
I'm the end and the beginning that's...

Original, and when I say original I mean
The original
Originality!

I believe in the dream what you attracting my nigga
I believe in the dream what you attracting my nigga

Like woah
We really do this shit
Like woah
Okay, baby breathe and let it flow
Like woah
Tap in, cuz we ain't been the same
No mo
All my people to the front... kick the door

And that's power?
And that's power?
And that's power?
Is that power?
(Yeah, uh huh)
