

You can run and hide but I'm gonna find you
And baby when I do, I'm gonna bite you
You came out at nighttime on the hunt
I smelled your blood and it made me blush
Is it human nature to be a hater
Cuz honey

I'm a slayer
I'm a heartbreaker
Save yer prayers for somebody who cares

Cross my heart and I swear to die
But you can't kill what's already dead inside
I'm burnin' alive in broad daylight
But it's all right
You shouldn't cry for me
Save your tears for somebody who cares
Can't see my reflection when I'm looking in the mirror
I'm so scared of what's not there
Feeling like a rebel
Dancing with the devil
Cuz honey I

I'm a slayer
I'm a heartbreaker
Save yer prayers for somebody who cares
I'm a slayer
I'm a heartbreaker
I don't like seeing red
But I think you would look better dead

Couple bad habits
If I want it, I have it
I've been a savage for way too long
Did my damage
Can't go backwards
I hear angels laughin'
Hahahahahahhaah

I'm a slayer
