

Silver Spoon

Jesse McCartney

Ivy league schools
With no rules
She's okay
And the lawyers get paid
To fix her brother's mistakes
Her momma sips wine at lunch time
On hot days
Cause her daddy's got a new girlfriend
He's cut into the estate

She was born on top of the moon
Lookin' out at the nicest view
Waking up with nothing else to do
But polishing up her silver spoon

Old money
From the old man
Oh honey
She run a big tab
No worries
She got nothing to lose
Old money
From the old man
Oh honey
She run a big tab
No worries
She got a silver spoon

Today she decided that
She's gonna start a company
Take the money that she makes
And donate to charity
Put her husband on the board
And pay him a salary
So he can run for senate
And pass a bill for world peace, world peace, world peace

She was born on top of the moon
Lookin' out at the nicest view
Waking up with nothing else to do
But polishing up her silver spoon

It's so crazy
With everything she has
Feels so crazy
She goes to bed feeling so bad
It's so crazy
If I married into that
I'd be super rich and super sad

She was born on top of the moon
She's polishing her silver spoon

Sing it with me now

Old money
From the old man
Oh honey
She run a big tab
No worries
She got nothing to loose
Old money
From the old man
Oh honey
She run a big tab
No worries
