

Driving 'round high in my girlfriend's ride
License expired, cops right behind me, that's my anxiety
Even though I try to push it aside, it always finds me somewhere
It's unfair how I stare and compare
Who I am with all them and forget everywhere I've been

You're just gonna take your time and make your mind up
And play with mine until I wind up with you again, yeah
The minute that you let me go, I'll start glowin'
Take control until you show up to woo me

Now I'm feeling down, 'cause I'm still high
And falcon doors in the whip I'm riding
I don't wanna die but I feel like I am
Keep getting high and I'm still not flying away
So I stay in this place that I hate
I felt great yesterday
But something's always gotta change, yeah
Now we're back again
So I get back again, yeah, uh
I'll measure, pleasure, pressure, rather Press you, get you, never
You think you're getting better, yeah
I'm not getting better yet, mmh

You're just gonna take your time and make your mind up
And play with mine until I wind up with you again, yeah
The minute that you let me go, I'll start glowin'
Take control until you show up to woo me

You're just gonna take your time
You're just gonna waste all mine, yeah
