

Guilty!

Jesse Rutherford

Guilty for killing all the flowers
Guilty for every hour I'm alive
Guilty for all my power
Guilty for every shower that I cry

And I hope I'll come back home
From this guilt trip I've been on
'Cause if I don't get back soon
I might end up losing you

Guilty for all of this luck
Guilty for all this love
Guilty for giving a fuck
Guilty for all I've done

And I hope I'll come back home
From this guilt trip I've been on
'Cause if I don't get back soon
I might end up losing you
