

Know Better

Jesse Rutherford

Oh, why can't I control myself?
I'm supposed to be grown by now
Time ain't gonna slow down, every second counts

No rhyme or reason to move so fast
I'm feeling it where I'm at
I hope we can make it last longer than ever

After everything I've learned
Always get what I deserve
They'll say

I should know better
I should know better by now
I should know better
I should know better by now
But I'm no better
Everyone's gonna find out
I'm just like the rest of 'em

And guess I am what I am
Just still don't get it yet, how could you understand?
Make mistakes, and I make amends sometimes
Say what I can't take back
Right place, wrong time for a reason
I'm mad, got in, still here, not leaving
I thank God each moment I'm breathing
Can't stop believing

After everything I've learned
Always get what I deserve, yeah
But they say

I should know better
I should know better by now
I should know better
I should know better by now
But I'm no better
Everyone's gonna find out
I'm just like the rest of 'em

Even though I should know better
Well, I should know better by now
But I'm no better
Everyone's gonna find out
I'm just like the rest of 'em
Even though I'm trying to be the best of 'em
