

Metaphors

Jesse Rutherford

Can you feel the moment
Do you feel alive? Mmh
Or are you caught in the basement
Of your mind? Oh, oh

Even though you can't see it
You know it's time, mmh
Can you feel it flowing
It's glowing hot

Oh, and it's finally clear
Float to the coast and keep it close
Keep it close, baby, keep it close
Keep it close, baby, keep it close
Keep it close, baby

It's too close to call, too close to call
It's too close to call, too close to call
Too close to call, too close to call
It's too close to call, too close to call
It's too close to call, too close to call
(Can you feel the moment? Can you feel the moment?)
It's too close to call, too close to call
(Can you feel the moment? Can you feel the moment?)
Too close to call, too close to call
It's too close to call, too close to call
Too close to call, too close to call
