

Rainbow

Jesse Rutherford

I saw a rainbow
Through the clouds
It had to rain for
It to come out
I saw a halo
Over your head
You were my angel
I must've been dead

So I had to say goodbye
To get to the gold on the otherside

I saw the future
After our past
I wasn't ready
For it to last
I saw a photo
It made me laugh
It gave me FOMO
It made me sad

So I had to say goodbye (To you, baby)
'Cause I knew it was time to cry
Yeah, I had to say goodbye
To get to the gold on the otherside

I've had some others, there won't ever be another like you
You give me butterflies, I might puke
You motherfucker, you're too easy to love
My mama even likes you too
Oh, I've had some others, there won't ever be another like you
I've had some others, there won't ever be another like you
