

Genocide Cake

Jesse Welles

And if you straddle the fence with the both of your legs thinki n' killin's the right thing to do Hedgin' yer bets, havin' genocide cake and tryin' to eat it too
, it won't do
But if you're totin' a photo of Ali Khamenei sayin' the Jews go tta leave No Buddha, Mohammed, no Krishna, Jesus needs a "river to the se a"
But if yer left's on a rifle with the other on a Bible in a pre pper hole down in the states Ain't no Red Hefer gonna save ya now, so get back to the traile r and wait

But if you straddle the fence with the both of your legs cause you don't wanna raise alarm Well it's too late to care 'cause there's drones in the air and they're aiming to do ya some harm And if you straddle the fence with the both of your legs, bury your head in the sand Well there's plenty of folks at the IDF and they specialize in that Something is wrong and you don't know what, but you know that i t must be bad

When the only choices to choose between's a corpse and a Big Ma
