

Happy Easter

Jesse Welles

Happy Easter
Death is risen
There are multiple famines for you to examine Thank God you got a status you can put a flag in
Happy Easter

Gas is risen
Like a one-way drone
Off a soldier's phone
Partin' the Red Sea
Hittin' refineries
Never comin' home
Happy Easter

The bridge collapsed
The port is closed
And the dead are trapped
People keen to work
You wanna send 'em back
Happy Easter

Happy Easter
Haiti's prisons all got busted through by Mr. Barbecue
You'll be shot in Port-au-Prince while you look for food
Happy Easter
But not from ISIS
A hundred and thirty-seven dead, way out in the big red
And Putin's election's just ensured he'll be the king 'till he'
s dead
Happy Easter

If you're wanting to leave
Well, buddy, you can try
But if you're wanting to fly
The Boeing 737s come apart in the sky
Happy Easter
Happy Easter
