

Who's gonna save you from
Yourself
Who's gonna save you from
Yourself

It's a long road to go with a heavy load
Some pick flowers
Some pick stones
I promised myself when I got home
I ain't goin' where no darkness grows

They come to me in my dark hour
Well you must succeed in beating them
With a great bodacious power

Joy's gonna save you from
Joy's gonna save you from
Yourself

Who's gonna take you off
Your shelf
Who's gonna take you off
Your shelf

And let that light within you shine
Lantern soul gonna glow so bright
No cloud allowed up in yer sky
New moon's gone, come out tonight

I tell you this is not your fate
Well you've only just a moment
And you haven't long to wait

Joy's gonna save you from
Joy's gonna save you from
Yourself

Who's gonna show you home
This time
Who's gonna show you home
This time

There's a brightness within you
Let it shine out in the blue
Let it guide you home tonight
May you remain within the light

Joy's gonna save you from
Joy's gonna save you from

Hey!

Joy's gonna save you from
Yourself
Joy's gonna save you from
Yourself
