

For Mama

Jessi Colter

[Verse]

My mama is a mama you'd believe in
As a child I remember how she prayed
Of'en misunderstood she lived lonely
But my mama believes God's holy word
Mama knows no strangers she knows Jesus
And everyone's God's children in mama's eyes
A bluebird's broken wing or a man that's hurt and dying
My mama trusts God for everything
So many times this world has left her empty
But not one time did her eyes leave her king
The faith my mama has in God makes people wonder
If mama's A natural human being

[Outro]

Mama knows no strangers she knows Jesus...
Oh yes my mama trusts God for everything
