

Velvet And Steel

Jessi Colter

What are we gonna call this relationship
Not quite in love and not quite it
C'mon, c'mon
Your eyes shine so bright to mine
You make me feel velvet inside
C'mon, I said, c'mon
You call me a high-steppin' mama
I say you're a slow movin' daddy, c'mon

Can you take it to the limit and see
See about you and me

Velvet and steel, velvet and steel
Velvet and steel, c'mon get real
(C'mon get real)
It's in the mix, baby
This can be fixed, baby
It's gonna get crazy
It's in the mixin', baby
It's in the mix, baby
It's in the mix, baby
It's gonna get crazy
It's in the mix, baby

What are we gonna call this relationship
Not quite in love and not quite it
C'mon, I said, c'mon
Your eyes shine so bright to mine
You make me feel velvet inside
C'mon (I think you feel velvet inside, baby)
C'mon (yeah)
You doubt me, a high-steppin' mama
I say you're a slow movin' daddy, c'mon
(C'mon, baby) c'mon (c'mon, Jessi)

Velvet and steel, velvet and steel
Velvet and steel, c'mon get real
(C'mon get real)
