

Who Walks Thru Your Memory (Billy Jo)

Jessi Colter

Who walks through your memory, Billy Jo?
Who took you away from me
Just a minute ago?
Who can come and take today
Away from me?
Who walks through your memory, Billy Jo?

There's a story that I heard
About you and a girl
They say that she outshined the rest
A woman of the world
They say she found you strong
Then watched as you grew weak
They say she built you up
Then left you at her feet
