

Arrived

Jessi

Tell 'em I've arrived, yeah
See them holding up the sign, yeah
Took forever and a day, yeah
They still comin' at me sideways

I ain't ever known a feeling this good
Don't give me a reason, bitch, I wish you would

Uh, being bad never looked or felt better, uh
Your girl's a rebel, never been the type to settle, uh
I ain't playin' games, only tryna level up
I'm here to regulate, never be regular

It's only the beginning so you better slow your roll
Addicted to Chanel, I'm in love with the Coco
Ever rose has a thorn, bitch, I'm rose gold
Thought I'd be a no show but I pulled up

Tell 'em I've arrived, yeah
Tell that valet bring my ride, yeah
Feeling so alive, yeah
But the doors are suicide, yeah, ah, yeah

Tell 'em I've arrived, yeah
See them holding up the sign, yeah
Took forever and a day, yeah
They still comin' at me sideways

I ain't ever known a feeling this good
Don't give me a reason, bitch, I wish you would

Yeah, they want me to fail, just got a check in the mail
Young girl checkin' the males, give me a second I'm feeling myself
Goddamn, I'm feeling myself, I deserve a day off
Don't forget to smell the flowers in the chaos

Countin' down on all the days I waited patiently
And all these years I never let my haters get to me
Hold up, don't question me, my destiny, I manifested
Uh, count my blessings, hold me down, you can count on Jessi

Don't let 'em blind you, it's hard to see who's fake or real
Let's me remind you, I'm here to stay, I came to kill
Now who the fuck gon' take it from me?
I'm finally happy, I'm making money so when I pull up

Tell 'em I've arrived, yeah
See them holding up the sign, yeah
Took forever and a day, yeah
They still comin' at me sideways

I ain't ever known a feeling this good
Don't give me a reason, bitch, I wish you would

This journey is a lonely road
But when I look at who I do it for, for you
It's the beginning of this roller coaster

Ain't no sign of slowing anytime soon

It's worthwhile, it's worthwhile to put a smile upon your face
Brighten up your day, hope you shine in every way
So when you walk into that crowded room
It's all eyes on you so live your life loud and

Tell 'em you arrived, yeah hey
See them holding up the sign, yeah
Took forever and a day, yeah
They still comin' at me sideways

I ain't ever known a feeling this good
Don't give me a reason, bitch, I wish you would Bitch, I wish you would, bitch, I wish you would Bitch, I wish you would
Bitch, I wish you would
