

Despite you listening I'm a speak my piece
This is lady J and I got a story to share with ya'll
Creating this place uneasy to express
A loss of words for the first time speechlessly caressed
I was born a star baby since day one
Places on a platform clap for em'
Cause I'm the one n only
I'm real playa and your phony
My words are yet so corny
But how can I help it it's just so true ha ha
I have been told
I've been told off along this road
People keep tabs on me
I hate ie with a cengeance
I tell them I do and with that truth
We respest, I respest
I disrespect those who come off
Rude like fools but I do it with class
Not with sass I do not like to be an ass for that matter
But if I ain't sorry to shatter or battle you
With words so mean
Then after comes verbs
And then makes a scene like what the hell
What The Hell yeah I know I'm so mean
What The Hell yeah I know I'm so mean
What The Hell yeah I know I'm so mean
So don't take my kindness as my weakness
What The Hell yeah I know I'm so mean
What The Hell yeah I know I'm so mean
What The Hell yeah I know I'm so mean
So don't take my kindness as my weakness baby
