

Care About Me

JESSIA

('Cause you don't even care about me)

Why am I still protecting you?
Why am I still saying that you mean well?
When you don't notice if I'm in the room
Yeah I will always choose you over myself

Oh I know that I deserve better than this
But I don't know how to not treat myself like shit

'Cause you don't even care about me
It's obvious, but I'm still crawling back on my knees
Rip my heart from my chest
And I'll still apologize for making a mess
But you don't even care about me

I don't make sense when it comes to you
I gave my worth up for somebody
Who doesn't care if we win or lose
Yeah I will always choose you or nobody

Oh I know that I deserve better than this
But I don't know how to not treat myself like shit

'Cause you don't even care about me
It's obvious, but I'm still crawling back on my knees
Rip my heart from my chest
And I'll still apologize for making a mess
But you don't even care about me

Oh I'm so sorry to myself
For justifying a narcissistic hell
For putting up with the minimum
Oh I'm so sorry

'Cause you don't even care
It's obvious, but I'm still crawling back on my knees
Rip my heart from my chest
And I'll still apologize for making a mess
'Cause you don't even care about me
