

Conviction

JESSIA

I'm a maniac
I'm dramatic
I'm a psychopath
Ain't it tragic?
Oh, oh

Do you wanna play?
Push my buttons
Make my getaway
Before I change my mind
Oh, my mind

'Cause every time somebody tries to get me to get close
They wake up with feelings they wanted but little they know

I'm in your head
I've got your heart
Don't you think twice
About runnin' too far
Let me practice your conviction
But only for a minute

I'm in your head
I'm holdin' tight
I'll rob you blind
And then kiss you goodnight
Let me practice your conviction
But only for a minute

Fill my cup of tea
Slow and steady
I'ma make you weak
You kinda like it
Oh, oh

'Cause every time somebody tries to get me to get close
They wake up with feelings they wanted but little they know

I'm in your head
I've got your heart
Don't you think twice
About runnin' too far
Let me practice your conviction
But only for a minute

I'm in your head
I'm holdin' tight
I'll rob you blind
And then kiss you goodnight
Let me practice your conviction
But only for a minute

Take these broken wings
And watch me fly out of my body
I just wanna be somebody
That I'd like to know

I know all my actions
Are just copin' with my fractures
If I heal to somethin' different
I will let you know
But for now

I'm in your head
I've got your heart
About runnin' too far
Let me practice your conviction

I'm in your head
I'm holdin' tight
And then kiss you goodnight
Let me practice your conviction

Let me practice, let me practice
Let me practice, let me practice
Let me practice your conviction
