

First Call

JESSIA

Are you there, babe, are you scared?
Is there anything I can promise
To keep you here?
Break my branches, grow your wings
Try your best to carry on
But don't you forget about me

So when you're ready to fall in love
Oh, and you think that you've had enough
I better be your first call
I better be your first call

Through the silence, I'm screaming out
I still love you more than anything else
Hm-hm-hm
You beautiful creature, give me a smile
'Cause I haven't felt that warmth from you
In a while

So when you're ready to fall in love
Oh, and you think that you've had enough
I better be your first call (call me crazy)
I better be your first call (call me crazy)
I better be your first call
