

Happy Without You

JESSIA

Wishing on stars of satellites or fireflies
To make this pain stop
How can I move on from knowing you to loving you
To now we can't talk
Why isn't everybody screaming
Cause my whole world's just blowing up
Tell me how are you still breathing
And I've just got to suck it up like

I can't wait to be happy without you
I know I'm gonna get there one day
I'll be hot as fuck
And so in love
You're not gonna recognize the girl that
You gave up
I can't wait to be happy without you

I guess I'm just killing time until I'm fine
I'm borderline coming undone
And I've just gotta tell myself
I'm not alone I'm gonna grow and life's looking up
Why isn't everybody screaming
Cause my whole world's just blowing up
But I feel like I've been healing
So I've just gotta cut you off like

I can't wait to be happy without you
I know I'm gonna get there one day
I'll be hot as fuck
And so in love
You're not gonna recognize the girl that
You gave up
I can't wait to be happy without you

One day
I won't be looking for you at every crosswalk stop sign
Or midnight drive
One day
I won't be needing your hands or your words to tell me if I'm alright
One day
I'll be good on my own
And I'll see you at shows and it won't even phase me
One day
Oh I can't wait

I can't wait to be happy without you
I know I'm gonna get there one day
I'll be hot as fuck
And so in love
You're not gonna recognize the girl that
You gave up
I can't wait to be happy without you
