

I'm Going Back

Jessica Andrews

I remember sunny weather, nothing better
Than me and you, driftin' away
Down the rainy river, we jump in together
Dry off and lay on the bay

The seasons will change
But my heart will always remain

Down that back road back home
It's been too long since I've been gone
I want that sweet taste of those days
And I'm packed, and I'm goin' back

Do you remember our walk in November
You got down and begged me to stay
I didn't know better, I couldn't promise you forever
My dreams they pulled me away

As hard as I try
The only place that I find peace of mind, is

Down that back road back home
It's been too long since I've been gone
I want that sweet taste of those days
And I'm packed, and I'm goin' back

Guess I was wrong
What I needed I realized
That I had it all along

I follow that back road back home
It's been too long since I've been gone
I want that sweet taste of those days
And I'm packed, and I'm goin' back
