

ghost

Jessica Baio

[Intro]

There's a ghost with hands in my hair
Lie to me softly, tell me you care
I can't let go 'cause I'm too scared
I'd rather you haunt me than know you're not there

[Verse 1]

I know you don't wanna lead me on but please keep walking (Walking)
Tell me we don't need love 'cause we'd only leave exhausted
And now it's sixth sense since your heart left
Always want more but you leave me with less
Tryna find hope in the hole in your chest
Chasing feelings I just can't forget

[Chorus]

There's a ghost with hands in my hair
Lie to me softly, tell me you care
I can't let go 'cause I'm too scared
I'd rather you haunt me than know you're not there

[Post-Chorus]

I try to see you (To see you)
Lose you like you're see-through (See-through)

[Verse 2]

I could be the one who doesn't leave like that Tell me what you want then say you'll be right back
Detached, empty echoes of your words like feedback
Oh, no, no, no, no, no
So I don't blink, don't blink
I want every second of you using me
Know I eventually gotta have to learn to let you go

[Chorus]

There's a ghost with hands in my hair
Lie to me softly, tell me you care
I can't let go 'cause I'm too scared
I'd rather you haunt me than know you're not there

[Post-Chorus]

I try to see you (To see you)
Lose you like you're see-through (See-through)

[Outro]

There's a ghost with hands in my hair
I'd rather you haunt me than know you're not there
