

life jacket

Jessica Baio

Call it, call it what you want it
But I know this is sabotage
How'd I let it get so far?
Honest, were you looking for a conquest?
Was your innocence a camouflage?
Acting like you didn't know I'd fall

You know you're kinda selfish
Keeping me for yourself, but Somehow I'm not mad at all

Heart so hijacked, you're taking me over
Fight back, but I know that it's hopeless
'Cause when you're near I can feel your, your pull
You take the wheel and throw me overboard
Floating, too late for me now
Just hoping I don't end up drowning
If you want my heart then you can have it
Just promise me you'll throw a life jacket

Sorry, you won't even say you're sorry
Yeah, you want me so methodically
But I'm not looking for apologies
I took my heart and I locked it
Turned the key and I tossed it
But somehow you still stole it from me

Heart so hijacked, you're taking me over
Fight back, but I know that it's hopeless
'Cause when you're near I can feel your, your pull
You take the wheel and throw me overboard
Floating, too late for me now (Now)
Just hoping I don't end up drowning (Drown)
If you want my heart then you can have it (Have it)
Just promise me you'll throw a life jacket

(Hmm)

Just promise me you'll throw a life jacket, jacket
Just promise me you'll throw a life jacket

Never been this certain but I'm still afraid
Treading on the surface, tell me that you'll stay, yeah
If you want my heart then you can have it (You can have it)
Just promise me you'll throw a life jacket
Never thought I'd be here losing my control
But you're what I need so I'm finally letting go, yeah

If you want my heart then you can have it
Just promise me you'll throw a life jacket
